Olympic Casino receives online gambling license

Today, on 21 January, Estonian Tax and Customs Board issued Olympic Casino Eesti AS the first online gambling license in Estonia.

At the moment Playtech's gaming platform is being tested and the first legal online casino in Estonia will probably be opened within the next couple of weeks. Olympic Casino's online environment will also include a poker room, which will give Estonians the first time opportunity to play at the world's leading online poker network iPoker.
