

Gunvor Engström, chairwoman

Gunvor Engström is educated at the Stockholm School of Economics.

Former CEO for the Swedish Federation of Business Owners, Bank2 Bank in Norway and former county governor of Blekinge.

Mrs. Engström has many years' experience of entrepreneurship and business development as a prominent officeholder, in both the business sector and government service.

Current board memberships include Semcon AB (Publ), Länsförsäkringar fund management and the third AP-fund

Sven-Otto Littorin, board member

Sven Otto Littorin holds a B.Sc. in Economics and Business from Lund University and has been a visiting scholar at Stanford University.

Mr. Littorin is a former Cabinet Minister for Employment and Secretary General of the Moderate Party. Mr. Littorin has been an entrepreneur for many years, among others as a founder of venture capital company Momentor. He has worked and lived abroad, most notably in England and in the US. Today Mr Littorin is co-founder and co-owner of the Serio Group, a Swedish property development company.

Lars Malmgren, board member and CEO

Lars Malmgren has an education in property economics from the University of Gävle and executive leadership training from IFL at Stockholm School of Economics.

Mr. Malmgren is an entrepreneur with many years' experience in property development, with emphasis on tenant housing and cooperative housing. Mr. Malmgren has served as a government expert in enquiries into housing for senior citizens and cooperative housing.

Today Mr. Malmgren is the founder of Utvecklingsbolaget Sverige AB, which is the leading property development company in Sweden for cooperative housing associations.

Bengt Eklund, board member

Mr. Eklund is an entrepreneur and owner of TopHousing AB which, for the last 35 years, has been a leading business in non-European construction with prefabricated modules for housing, premises, hospitals and offices.