

Paweł Broniewski

Paweł Broniewski is an expert in the fields of i.a. security, cyber-security, AML, compliance, business processes, operations and IT. In the Alior Bank Capital Group, he served as a member of the Management Board of Alior Leasing sp. z o.o.

He is a manager with many years of experience. He worked i.a. as an executive director and member of the supervisory boards of Tauron Polska Energia and Grupa Azoty, where he was responsible for corporate, business, physical and cyber security as well as audit and the internal control system.

Paweł Broniewski is a graduate of the Krakow University of Economics, Cracow School of Business CUE, where he earned an Executive Master of Business Administration (MBA) in Corporate Management. He also accomplished, i.a., postgraduate studies in the field of the Washington Convention CITES for state administration at the Agricultural Academy in Poznań and the Power PRO leadership competence development programme at the ICAN Institute.

He is certified as an internal auditor (issued by the Ministry of Finance) and qualified to perform inspections and internal audits in public administration (issued by the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Administration).